Suddenly Nancy had another idea.

When Nick flew away in his air-plane and did not come back, Namey A Puzzle A Day began to worry.
"I can't imagine what has happened!" she said to the Tinker Man.

"He must have been taken prisoner." said the Tinker Man. -Which was exactly what, had hap-pened, for Nick's airplane had been shot down by the tin soldiers and he had been put into prison and his Magic Shoes taken away.

"I'll have to go and hunt for him."
cried Nancy. "I'll be a spy."

"I know a better way still," suggested the Tinker Man. "I have aned for the tin soldiers. But they baven't got it yet and you may use it if you wish, to go and look for Nick. But you must be careful not to let them shoot at you ar you'll either fall and be killed or taken prisoner like Nick."

"I'll be careful - very," promised Nancy.

So she took off her Red Cross nurse uniform and the Tinker Man gave her an aviator's uniform-cap. toggles and all, and soon she was earning all about flying.

NEGRO FARMERS QUIT SOUTH

Official Washington says that negro farmers are quitting he south for the wages of the north,

They say 32,000 negro farm hands in Georgia have moved porth during the last twelve months. They say 22,750 negro farmers have deserted South Carolina

They say two per cent of the negroes of Florida living in or near farming communities have described the lands of Florida one was waiting meals for me, for the wages of the north. They say that three and a half per cent of the negro farm population of Alabama has moved north since the last crop season, driven there by the boll weevil or lured there by high wages or improved living conditions. They say that 15,000 negro farmers or about 33 1-2 per ent of the negro farm population of Arkansas have moved out A neighbor tells us he has already of the state, going to the industrial centers of the north,

For fifty-seven years the cotton crop of the south has been produced by cheap labor. Now, if the Mexican and black exoducontinues, whatever cotton is to be produced in the south, must or produced by high price labor.

Economic conditions are changing. Labor conditions are changing. Marketing conditions are changing. Price levels for raw materials are changing.

There is a bright side to it, and out of it all, the south may come into its own and the south will come into its own when the cotton grown in the south will be turned into the finished product by southern spindles and southern workers.

The indications Chicago ...... from the score by inning play of the second contest show that had the clash gone its full 9-inning limit, the Islanders might have brought home a different story for local fandom.

Spidle, Fuller and Choate constituted the batteries in the opening round on Saturday, and both the Port Arthurians did well in the box. The DeQuincy lads got away to an early start in the first of thhe two-game st ries, and chalked up four runs in the fatal second frame, but after that, Fuller went in and held them to goose eggs until, the game was wound up

The DeQuincy lads chose an old Three I Leaguer to hurl their opening game for them, that personage being none other than Smith. Smith pitched an unusually good game, and held the Islanders to 4 hits, as the score by inning play, which follows, ædieåge∽ :

TO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF PORT ARTHUR-

In my own behalf, and to those who have heard me criticized, I desire to place myself before you, Mr. and Mrs. Voter, as a candidate for Chief of Police.

I can truthfully say I have not asked the bootleggers, gamblers and prostitutes for their support; I do not want it, and rather than receive it, I would prefer defeat. Therefore, when I am elected, they need not expect any favors from

I stand for the enforcement of the law, I'm not boasting' any promises, but God being my helper I will endeavor to relieve the situation of this community and make it miserable for those who rely upon the violation of our laws for their means of support. I am under no obligations to any of the lawless element of Port Arthur and it is my pleasure to state I never intend to be.

I expect to go the limit to suppress the vice and evil conditions that confront our ritizenship,

I have no-political-leaders or-bosses to elect me. I am qualified to fill the office of Chief of Police, and feel fully competent to fulfill its requirements.

I have been criticized by some for seeking the vote of the good women of this city; my reply to that is PD RATH-ER HAVE THE VOTE OF ONE GOOD CHRISTIAN WOMAN THAN THAT OF A THOUSAND VOTERS WHO BREAK THE LAW AND SEEK OUT AN EXIST-GOOD WOMEN OF OUR CITY WHO STAND FOR THE RIGHT AND A CLEANER COMMUNITY.

I here and now pledge my word and honor to the good men and women of Port Arthur, who have the welfare of this city at heart, that I will stand by none but you.

I had rather be defeated by the good men and women of this community than elected by those whose livelihood is gathered from an illegitimate practice. want the voters here to know that I am in sympathy with our prohibition laws and always have been.

If you see fit to give me your support and influence, it will be greatly appreciated, and I can sassure you you will never have a regret in doing so.
